

DEBRA TOBIN

Debra began her career at NCUA as an Examiner in Norfolk, Virginia. She has also worked as a Division of Supervision Analyst in Region II; a Strategic Planning Analyst in the Office of Capital Markets and Planning; and a Risk Management Officer in the Office of Examination and Insurance. She is currently the Supervisory Examiner for the Economic Development Specialists in the Office of Small Credit Union Initiatives. Debra is a graduate of Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia. Her certifications include: Certified Public Accountant certification; certificate in Strategic Planning from the American Management Association; and Leadership Coaching graduate certificate from the George Washington University. Debra is also a graduate of NCUA's Management Development Program.