
MISSION

OCCU MISSION

The Mission of the Office of Corporate Credit Unions (OCCU) is to ensure the safety and soundness of the corporate credit union system by:

1. Providing timely and effective advice to the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board on legislative, regulatory, and operational issues concerning corporate credit unions.
2. Developing, implementing, and maintaining examination and supervisory policies and procedures that address in a timely manner corporate credit union issues in an evolving financial market.
3. Effectively managing OCCU's resources, the applicable risk to the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF) and the systemic risk to the credit union system.
