Docket No. 13-0002-R4

STIPULATION AND CONSENT TO ISSUANCE OF AN ORDER OF PROHIBITION

Theresa Portillo ("Portillo"), former employee and institution-affiliated party of Women's Southwest Federal Credit Union, Dallas, Texas, and the National Credit Union Administration Board ("NCUAB"), acting by and through its Counsel, hereby make this Stipulation and Consent to Issuance of an Order of Prohibition ("Stipulation").

Portillo and the NCUAB hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Consideration. The NCUAB is of the opinion that grounds exist to initiate an administrative prohibition action against Portillo pursuant to Section 206(g) of the Federal Credit Union Act ("FCUA"), 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g). Portillo, without admitting or denying that said grounds exist (except those set forth as to Jurisdiction in paragraph 2), desires to avoid the time, cost and expense of administrative litigation. Accordingly, Portillo consents to the issuance by NCUAB of an Order of Prohibition ("Order") in consideration of the settlement, compromise and resolution of a potential administrative action that might be asserted by NCUAB against Portillo arising out of her position as Chief Executive Officer with Women's Southwest Federal Credit Union.

2. Jurisdiction. Pursuant to its authority under Section 206 of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786, the NCUAB is the appropriate Federal agency to maintain an administrative action against an "institution-affiliated party." Portillo is an "institution-affiliated party" within the meaning of Section 206(r) of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(r). Accordingly, Portillo admits the jurisdiction of the NCUAB over her and over the subject matter of this action

3. Finality. Portillo consents to the issuance of the Order, and agrees to comply with all of its terms. The Order complies with all requirements of law, and is issued pursuant to Section 206 of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786. Upon its issuance, the Order is final, effective and fully enforceable by the NCUAB. The laws of the United States of America govern the construction and validity of this Stipulation and the Order, and the section and paragraph headings do not affect the interpretation of this Stipulation or the Order.

4. Waivers. Portillo waives her right to an administrative hearing provided by Section 206(g)(4) of the FCUA, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g)(4). Portillo further waives her right to seek judicial review of the Order, or otherwise challenge the validity or legality of the Order.

5. Other Actions. Pursuant to this Stipulation, Portillo hereby agrees that the Order is solely for the purpose of settling and resolving NCUAB's potential prohibition action against her, as provided by paragraph 1 of this Stipulation, and does not release, discharge, compromise, settle, dismiss, resolve, or in any way affect any actions, claims, charges against, or liabilities that arise in connection with her former or current affiliations with Women's Southwest Federal Credit Union, or any affiliate thereof, and that may be or have been brought by the Liquidating Agent for Women's Southwest Federal Credit Union or any other Federal or state government agency or entity other than the NCUAB.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, Portillo and the NCUAB execute this Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of an Order of Prohibition.
