Docket No.: 14-0003-R5

NOTICE OF PROHIBITION

WHEREAS on or about August 20, 2013, Jeannette Abbott, also known as Jeannette Hollars (“Abbott”) was convicted of Theft, Embezzlement, or Misapplication by Credit Union Officer, 18 U.S.C. § 657, a charge to which she had previously pleaded guilty, in the United States District Court for the District of Oregon, in connection with her employment at Malheur Federal Credit Union;

WHEREAS a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 657 is a criminal offense involving dishonesty and breach of trust;

NOW, THEREFORE, YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT:

1. Pursuant to 12 U.S. C. § 1785(d)(1)(A) and 12 U.S.C. § 1829(a)(1)(A), Abbott is prohibited from becoming an “institution affiliated party” of any insured depository institution, as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1786(r); otherwise participating, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any insured depository institution; and owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, any insured depository institution;

2. Pursuant to 12 U.S. C. § 1785(d)(1)(B) and 12 U.S.C. § 1829(a)(1)(B), no insured depository institution may permit Abbott to engage in any conduct or continue in any relationship prohibited in paragraph 1 above;

3. Pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1785(d)(3) and 12 U.S.C. § 1829(b), whoever knowingly violates paragraph 1 or 2 above is subject to a fine of not more than $1 million for each day such prohibition is violated, or imprisonment for not more than five (5) years, or both;

4. The "Judgment in a Criminal Case" document, Case No. 3:12-CR-00478-KI, is made a part hereof and incorporated herein by reference; and

5. This Notice of Prohibition shall be effective and enforceable on the date set forth below.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 24th day of January, 2014.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of Three (3) years.

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter.

The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the Standard Conditions of Supervised Release that have been adopted by this court as set forth in this judgment. The defendant shall also comply with the Special Conditions of Supervision as set forth below and any additional conditions attached to this judgment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, if required by law.
2. The defendant's employment shall be subject to approval by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall pay full restitution to the victim identified in the presentence report in the amount of $93,749.40. If there is any unpaid balance at the time of release from custody, it shall be paid at the maximum installment possible and not less than $75.00 per month.
4. The defendant shall authorize release to the US Probation Officer any and all financial information by execution of a release of financial information form, or by any other appropriate means, as directed by the probation officer.
5. The defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall maintain a single checking and/or savings account in his/her name. The defendant shall deposit into this account all income, monetary gains or other pecuniary proceeds, and make use of this account for payment of all personal expenses. All other accounts must be disclosed to the probation officer.
7. The defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the probation officer. The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500.00 without the approval of the probation officer.
8. The defendant shall not make applications for any loan, enter into any credit arrangement, or enter into any residential or business lease agreement without approval of the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer.
10. The defendant shall take psychotropic medication, if medically approved, for the treatment of a mental or emotional disorder as directed by his probation officer.
11. The defendant shall continue the care of her primary care physician, Kristin Christensen, P.A., and her mental health provider, Valerie Zuniga, who will prescribe defendant's medications. The defendant will provide documentation of changes in medication and is required to sign a release of information form allowing for the exchange of information between the medication prescribers and the probation officer.

12. The defendant shall utilize one pharmacy to fill prescriptions and shall sign a release of information form allowing for the exchange of information between the pharmacy and the probation officer.

13. The defendant shall adhere to a home detention schedule as prescribed by the probation officer for a period of SIX (6) Months, which may include electronic monitoring, global positioning surveillance or other means of monitoring as directed by the probation officer. The defendant's employer or other third parties may be contacted at the probation officer's discretion to confirm the defendant's compliance with the home detention program. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of home confinement as determined by the probation officer and may be held responsible for any damage to the monitoring equipment.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

The Judges of the District of Oregon adopt the following standard conditions of probation and supervised release to apply in every case in which probation and/or supervised release is imposed upon a defendant. The individual judge may impose other conditions deemed advisable in individual cases of probation or supervised release supervision, as consistent with existing or future law.

1. The defendant shall report in person to the probation office for the district to which he or she is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of probation or supervised release is mandatory for illegal possession of a controlled substance.
3. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive, or dangerous device.
4. If the defendant illegally uses drugs or abuses alcohol, has a history of drug or alcohol abuse, or drug use or possession is determined to be an element of the defendant's criminal history or instant offense, the defendant shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program as directed by the probation officer which may include urinalysis testing to determine if the defendant has used drugs or alcohol. In addition to urinalysis testing that may be part of a formal drug treatment program, the defendant shall submit up to eight (8) urinalysis tests per month.
5. The defendant shall submit to a search of his/her person, residence, office or vehicle, when conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
6. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.
7. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
8. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer. The defendant may decline to answer inquiries if a truthful response would tend to incriminate him/her. Such a refusal to answer may constitute grounds for revocation.
9. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities to the best of his or her financial ability.
10. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
11. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change in residence or employment.
12. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. If, at any time, the probation officer has reasonable cause to believe the defendant is using illegal drugs or is abusing alcohol, the defendant shall submit to urinalysis testing, breathalyzer testing, or reasonable examination of the arms, neck, face, and lower legs.
13. The defendant shall not knowingly frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
14. The defendant shall not knowingly associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not knowingly associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
15. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any reasonable time at home or elsewhere, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
16. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
17. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informant or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
18. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by his or her criminal record or personal history and characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such a notification requirement. This requirement will be exercised only when the probation officer believes a reasonably foreseeable risk exists or a law mandates such notice. Unless the probation officer believes the defendant presents an immediate threat to the safety of an identifiable individual, notice shall be delayed so the probation officer can arrange for a court hearing and the defendant can obtain legal counsel.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in this Judgment:

	Assessment (as noted on Sheet 1)	Fine	Restitution	TOTAL
TOTALS	$100.00	$0.00	$93,749.40	$93,849.40

The determination of restitution is deferred until _____. An Amended Judgment in a Criminal Case will be entered after such determination.

The defendant shall make restitution (including community restitution) to the following payees in the amount listed below.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive an approximately proportioned payment, unless specified otherwise in the priority order or percentage payment column below. However, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(I), all non-federal victims must be paid in full prior to the United States receiving payment.

TOTALS	$	$93,749.40

If applicable, restitution amount ordered pursuant to plea agreement $_____.

The defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of the judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for delinquency and default, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and it is ordered that:

the interest requirement is waived for the  fine and/or  restitution.

the interest requirement for the  fine and/or  restitution is modified as follows:

Any payment shall be divided proportionately among the payees named unless otherwise specified.

*Findings for the total amount of losses are required under Chapters 109A, 110, 110A, and 113A of Title 18, United States Code, for offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994, but before April 23, 1996.
